WRITE ME A LETTER

Anyone living in the Estancia Valley desiring to boost the country I wish to have them write me a letter saving where they came from to this country, how they like the country, what they think of its future. If a farmer tell me what your prospects for a crop are, etc.

These letters will be published collectively and sent back east to people making inquiries about the Estancia Valley.

Address me at Moriarty, N.M.
Respectfully,
Robt. H. Harper.

Teacher Should Rank High.

If education is to do what we hope for our children, it is imperative that the best and most gifted men and women should be attracted into the ranks of teachers and that they should be regarded as filling one of the most highly honored positions in the land.

The Laggard's Limit.

She—"But why is it that you get engaged so often, Mr. Jones?" He—"Because I haven't the courage to marry."

World's Domestic Animals.

Harsh Condemnation.

Nothing is more contemptible than a bald man who pretends to have hair.—Martial.

Mumps Spread by Cat.

The rapid spread of an epidemic of mumps in a Pennsylvania town recently was attributed to a cat, which caught the disease by eating food handled by one of the earliest patients and gave it to other family pets.

Popular Novel Built Up Town.

Blackmore's "Lorna Doone" was responsible for the popularity of Lynton and Lynmouth. Hotels sprang up as if by magic, and it is estimated that Blackmore's work increased the value of real estate in the section mentioned at least 100 per cent.

Old Ocean Scuttlings.

The island of Aldabra, to the north-west of Madagascar, is becoming smaller through the action of the mangroves that grow along the foot of the cliffs. They eat their way into the rock in all directions, and into the gaps thus formed the waves force their way. In time they will probably reduce the island to pieces.

Studies in Gratitude.

"All I got for my trouble was a 'thank you,'" said the man who begrudges friendly effort. "You're lucky," replied the billionaire philanthropist. "I'm expected to say 'thank you' to people who find me a suitable method of giving my money away."

Letting the Cat Out of the Bag.

The saying "let the cat out of the bag" probably had its origin in the trick of substituting a cat for a young pig in the days when it was customary for the country folks in England to take pigs to market in bags. These bags, in old phraseology, were called "pokes." If anyone was foolish enough to buy an animal without looking at it, he was said to have bought "a pig in a poke," but if he opened the bag the cat would jump out and the trick was exposed.

SUCCESS

Young men and women often ask "What shall I do to obtain success?" The most essential thing is that you DO something. Success will not overtake you, nor is there any royal road which will lead you to it.

The greatest obstacle in the way of many young people is that they want someone to "pull" them upward instead of "pushing" themselves.

The writer is being constantly asked by business men to recommend young people for responsible positions. The kind of young men and women wanted are those who have "push" and who possess a thorough business training.

The business world needs you and will reward you liberally for efficient service. You can best fit yourself for a superior position by securing a training which has opened the way to opportunity for hundreds of others.
